CENTRAL BOARD OF REVENUE

ESTATE DUTY

New Delhi, the 27th December 1955

S.R.O. 11.—The following draft of a further amendment which the Central Board of Revenue proposes to make to the Estate Duty Rules, 1953(a), as amended (b), in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 85 of the Estate Duty Act, 1953 (34 of 1953), is published as required by the said sub-section, for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby, and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration after the 15th January, 1956.

2. Any objections or suggestions which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date specified will be considered by the said Board.

Draft Amendment

In the said Rules—

In para. 5 of Form E.D.-7, the word “interest” shall be deleted.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the amendment but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Where postponement of payment of estate duty leviable in respect of any property is requested on the ground that the duty cannot, without excessive sacrifice, be raised by the accountable persons at once, Section 70(1) of the Estate Duty Act, 1953, provides for the levy of interest on the amount of the duty. The charging of such interest is not a penal measure. On the contrary, it is merely a condition on which payment of duty may be postponed for the benefit of the estate.

The imposition of such interest is not, however, one of the items specified in Section 63 of the Estate Duty Act against which an appeal lies to the Central Board of Revenue. The object of the present amendment is to delete the item of “interest” from the appealable items mentioned in para. 5 of the Demand Notice Form.
